Jamie Jordan Promoted to Partner at Davis & Davis

Farmington Hills, Mich. (September 30, 2021) – Davis & Davis is proud to announce that Jamie Jordan is now a Partner at the firm which recently reached its 31st Anniversary. Both Howard and Michelle Davis, partners stated, “We are thrilled to have Jamie join us a Partner. Her leadership, design talent and business skills have been instrumental in the stability and growth of our company. Jamie’s guidance will ensure a bright future and continue to promote team collaboration and satisfaction, as well as confident and long-lasting client relationships.”

In addition to Jamie becoming partner, Davis & Davis boasts an 80% women-to-men ratio within their office and the firm now qualifies as a majority female owned small business.

Jamie stated, “Since joining Davis & Davis in 2005, I have had the benefit of learning the business from the ground up. Evolving from an entry-level role, into space planning, creating conceptual design, developing construction document packages, working through contracts and managing client relationships, I have had the privilege of witnessing millions of square feet of commercial projects developed in my tenure. I look forward to growing our team and continuing to create exceptional spaces to elevate the human experience for our clients.”

Jamie received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Interior Design from Michigan State University. She is also licensed and certified with the NCIDQ accreditation (www.cidq.org), the interior design industry's recognized indicator of knowledge and proficiency in interior design principles and an acknowledgement of the designer's commitment to the field.

For the remainder of 2021, Jamie will be leading the firm’s high set goals of growing the present team by 50%, which the firm is half way there. Jamie and the firm are committed to fostering growth in the Detroit area architectural and design field by attracting and creating new opportunities for strong candidates for continued client project growth at Davis & Davis!

In addition, Davis & Davis was recently honored with a 1st Place award at the annual 2021 Detroit Design Awards event for their interior design project within the O’Hare International Center in Rosemont, Illinois, in-which Jamie was part of this project team. As stated by Judge Jamie Herzlinger, “The space by Davis & Davis looks current and timeless, and is welcoming and inviting.”

Jamie resides in Commerce Township with her husband Nick and two children.
